Dear EFUMC Congregation,

While our pastors deserve to be appreciated each and every day, October is deemed "Pastor Appreciation Month" and October 11, 2020, is a Sunday designated as "Pastor Appreciation Day." Much like other special days set aside for particular groups of people, this celebration was started by Hallmark cards in 1992 and was officially called Clergy Appreciation National Day of Honoring. Regardless of the origination, I know that you join me in desiring to show our respect, honor, and full support of our pastors. We are so blessed here at EFUMC to have a Senior Pastor, Rev. David Morris, an Associate Pastor, Rev. Matt Jordan, a Music Minister, Rev. Billy Luttrell, and a Pastor Emeritus, Rev. Gary Daniel. Here are some ideas for showing your appreciation for their selfless, willing sacrifice to serve us:

- A handwritten letter
- A gift card to a local restaurant
- A gas card
- A gift card to Publix, Walmart, or another grocery store
- An Amazon card
- Cash
- An offer of a beach condo, cabin, or getaway spot for a night
- Babysitting services would be an option for Pastor David
- Yard work services
- Dry-cleaning services
- An offer for food delivery or take out (include a menu in a card and call them to arrange the night)
- Anything special you can make or do for them
- Feel free to "pool" funds with friends or Sunday School groups and purchase something larger

Let's all be sure to personally thank our pastors for their leadership, wisdom, and support anytime during the month of October.

"We have shared together the blessings of God." Philippians 1:7

In Christ,
Laura Wildzunas, Lay Leader

A Word from Pastor David

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

1 Corinthians 13: 4- 7

REV. DAVID MORRIS
Senior Pastor

EFUMC Family,

This year has been one of many changes and of many challenges not only in our church life, but in the world in general. I don't know about you, but I know that at times I have felt overwhelmed by the number of things going on that are beyond my control. It seems like every time I think I have figured out what the new "normal" is the world throws another curve ball.

One of the things we are working hard on here at EFUMC is to not let those things that are out of our control overwhelm us. Instead of worrying too much about the things we are unable to do our leadership is working to make the best of what we CAN do. To that end we are working to restart Sunday school and small group ministries in the very near future. We are working to find new and creative ways to say yes to new and emerging ministries. We are working to open more fully to ministries that have been ongoing through this season of pandemic. All of these are good things, but they are also hard things.

You see, opening our church more fully does not mean that we still aren't striving to maintain best practices for our health and wellness as a church. Sometimes, this means that we are not able to do everything we would like to do, and sometimes it means we must be willing to change the way we do certain ministries. One thing that is sure is that the church that emerges from this season of pandemic and social distancing is one that will look differently. We as a church have an incredible opportunity to multiply and increase our ministries, but that means we have to be willing to accept that the way we have always done things as a church will not be the way we are able to do things moving forward. To begin reopening we must be willing to adapt to the circumstances in which we find ourselves. In short, things might have to change.

I know that change is difficult. As a creature of habit, I love my daily, weekly, monthly, and yearly rituals. I love being able to look at the calendar and look forward to things that I find deeply meaningful. This year has been a year of constant change to that approach to life. Looking at the calendar now can be less exciting and more anxiety producing. All of this can be incredibly frustrating. When that frustration rears its ugly head, and very often we, as followers of Jesus, forget ourselves and allow this frustration to lead us. When I find myself in seasons of anger and frustration, I find 1 Corinthians 13 to be particularly comforting. This periscope of scripture from Paul's Epistle to the church in Corinth is one that reminds us of who God calls us to be. We are called to be the people who represent God's love in the world. We are to be patient and kind. We are called to not let pride or jealousy lead our lives. We are to build one another up, and be humble, helpful, and merciful to one another. We are to persevere as the people live out their discipleship to Christ.

This month my prayer for us as a church is that we would allow love, patience, and kindness to guide our actions. I pray that we would persevere through all obstacles that come before us, and that through our lived-out faith and our witness our church would increase in its ministry to the world.

Blessings and Peace,

Pastor David

FROM PASTOR MATT'S DESK & EFUMC YOUTH MINISTRIES NEWS

MATT JORDAN
ASSOCIATE PASTOR
DIRECTOR OF YOUTH MINISTRIES

If you are seeking a devotion for this fall, or maybe something simply to switch it up and encourage you I would highly recommend reading through a hymnal. The hymns are great devotionals, and this month I want to share one with you which reminds us of something extremely important: Take up Thy Cross! We must take up thy cross to follow Jesus. We must take up thy cross if a disciple we want to be.

So often we understand what is needed, but not necessarily how to do it. What does it look like to take up the cross in one's life? To take up your cross may mean to bear the wood of the desk, as one monk said, to study deeply the word of God each morning. Taking up your cross may mean instead of an afternoon nap you weary yourself even more playing with the kids or fixing the sink. Taking up your cross may mean instead of a girl's night out, it is a time spent in prayer for forgiveness of your husband instead of sharing your problems. Taking up your cross may mean to volunteer and serve in an area which will cost you valuable time to serve the church. Taking up your cross may mean to risk your life for sharing the Gospel. Taking up your cross may mean to humble yourself and do something for others more than yourself. Taking up your cross means to make a change which could cause sacrifice in your life.

"Take up thy cross let not its weight fill thy weak spirit with alarm; His strength shall bear thy spirit up, and brace thy heart and nerve thine arm."

Take up thy cross, friend, and follow Jesus with all you have. To be a disciple is to be an apprentice. To be a disciple of Jesus means becoming less like the world, and more like our beloved Savior. To follow Christ means to take up thy cross while laying our burdens down. Take up the cross today and bear it proudly as our Savior destroyed its shame and emptied the grave! Be blessed today.

"Take up thy cross the Savior said, if thou wouldst my disciple be; deny thyself, the world for sake, and humbly follow after me. Take up thy cross let not its weight fill thy weak spirit with alarm; his strength shall bear thy spirit up, and brace thy heart and nerve thine arm. Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame, nor let thy foolish pride rebel; thy Lord for thee the cross endured, to save thy soul from death and hell. Take up thy cross and follow Christ, nor think till death to lay it down; for only those who bear the cross may hope to wear the glorious crown."

In Christ,
PASTOR MATT

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

Joseph M. Scriven (1855)

Jesus said, "In this world you will have trouble. But take heart!
I have overcome the world." -John 16:33

As we all know this world can be a tough place to live. We all experience trials and tribulations from time to time in our lives. The writer of this poem, John Scriven, was no stranger to hardships. Tragedy touched his life many times; but God's strength sustained him. He was in poor health a good part of his life. The day before his wedding to his childhood sweetheart she was thrown from her horse into a lake and drowned. At the age of 25, a second fiancée died just before their marriage. It was several years later during a severe illness of his mother, that he penned these words of encouragement and comfort for her.

I do not want to paint a picture of doom and gloom. This life on earth can be a wonderful adventure. But many times, we are heavy laden, and burdened down with a load of care; however, this hymn of encouragement reminds us, we need to take it all to God in prayer. Jesus is always there, He is our Savior, our refuge, and our friend. He is waiting with open arms for us to talk with him, telling Him all our burdens and cares. If we take it all to Jesus, He will take us in His arms, shield us, and we can find solace there.

Psalm 85:8b says this, "I will listen with expectancy to what God the Lord will say..." So, take all your trials, temptations, and tribulations to Jesus through prayer, and then listen with expectancy for His answer to you. Our friend Jesus will take care of us.

"Sing"cerely

Judene Fluker
Director of
Children's Ministry

Fall is officially here! It is my favorite time of year! I look forward to festivals, marshmallow roasts and, of course, pumpkin painting! In addition to all these things, I look forward to seeing the leaves change. The beautiful fall colors make me feel so relaxed, refreshed, and grateful.

I guess you say why grateful? The fall leaves slowly turning into wonderful little pieces of art remind me of the changes God made in my life. I am truly grateful for that! There was a point in my life where I felt nothing was moving forward. I felt trapped in my shortcomings and I felt hopeless. I gave up control and my almighty God stepped right in and began to make a change. I felt refreshed, relaxed, and confident in who I was becoming.

God takes the time to make a change in every single leaf on a tree, just imagine the beauty he can make of your life! Every time I see the fall leaves, I remember that I had to go through a process of changing and shedding to become "green" just the same. A lot of "leaves" (bad habits and characteristics) had to fall away from me so that I could become renewed. If you are in your "fall" right now, always know that the process is beautiful and never be ashamed to show your "leaves." The things you are shedding truly do inspire others to embrace the process.

Right now, I am blessed to be living a "green" life. A life of servanthood, self-worth and happiness! Think of fall as a time of change in our lives. We can take the time to release our leaves so that we will be renewed through Christ! Matthew 11:29 States, "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Learn from the Lord and watch your leaves change.

I truly pray that you have many blessed days in the "green" life that is before you! I love you all dearly!

LIVE WELL AND PRACTICE GOOD HABITS

JOHN KELSOE, JR.
Director of
Recreational Ministries &
Associate Youth Director

As I rise early in the mornings and prepare for the day, I think back to my collegiate playing career and recall how important the art of preparation was in my life. It never mattered whether on gameday, practice, or off-days I always applied the art of preparation. Ancient Chinese Military General/Philosopher Sun Tzu wrote in his book "The Art of War" that "most battles are often won or lost before anyone steps on to the battlefield." Sun Tzu believed the deciding factor for every battle was determined by the army's preparation.

During his reign as ruler of Israel, King David wrote in Psalm 144:1, "Blessed be the Lord my rock who strengthens my hands for war and my fingers for battle." David doesn't just show up to the battlefield to fight and expect victory nor did he train his soldiers in such a way. It was David's preparation and trust in the Lord that propelled his men onward to victory.

As a college pitcher, I didn't possess the ability to throw hard nor did I have the best off-speed pitches to compliment my fastball. But what I lacked in skills and abilities, I possessed a different set of skills. Throughout my career I relied on my competitiveness, perseverance, determination, work ethic, and most importantly, I relied on my ability to prepare for each member of the opposition. By gameday I knew every single weakness and strengths of my opponent before touching the rubber and delivering the first pitch. As we prepare for the upcoming days and weeks remember this. The outcome of our days often is determined by how well we prepare. Therefore, prepare for success daily, be willing to adjust to things out of your control, and SET THE TONE!

Live Well and Practice Good Habits,

JOHN

There are many exciting things happening at Mom's Day Out and Stepping Stones Preschool as we move into October.

On Tuesday mornings children in our 2, 3, and 4 year old classes gather in the sanctuary to hear a Bible story led by one of our church staff, recite their monthly memory verses, and pray The Lord's Prayer. We appreciate so much that our Pastors, Children's Director, Youth/Family Life Center director, and Mr. Jim, one of our church members, take time from their busy schedules to help our children grow spiritually and learn about the Bible.

On October 9th-13th, Mom's Day Out and Stepping Stones Preschool will be closed for Fall Break. Then, on the 14th and 15th, Focus On Kids will be at our school to take individual photos of all of our students. Siblings may also be photographed together.

Reading aloud to children is a very important activity for building the skills and knowledge children need to be successful readers. Here at MDO and SSP we read to our children every day. We have a wonderful assortment of books and CDs for teachers to choose from to reinforce our curriculum and strive for the excellence necessary to continue the joy of reading throughout childhood and well into the young adult years. Books are a treasure for us all!

ENTERPRISE CELEBRATE RECOVERY

Celebrate Recovery continues to meet under strict pandemic conditions. We are so grateful to God and to EFUMC that we are allowed to continue for those who need God's help and find their place here at Enterprise First United Methodist. It is a privilege and joy to welcome every newcomer that walks in those doors.

This past month we trained and put into action changes and improvements on how to best apply the principles we received from the 2020 Summit. Additionally, we have developed a new format for our meetings to ensure that we are in compliance with the EFUMC COVID-19 Response Team and EFUMC policies.

We are humbled and joyous to see that each week we are attracting more and more of our participants back to our Christ-centered recovery resource. On a very special note, at this writing we are expecting a group of approximately ten young ladies from Pathway Youth Camp in New Brockton, AL, to join our CR Youth (The Landing) on September 29th. We covet your prayers in this expansion of our ministry. These young folks need us and we need them.

You are always encouraged to come on Tuesday nights. We meet for "large group" at 6:30 p.m. for a lesson or testimony. (Small group share time begins at 7:30 p.m.) Somehow there is always something said in the large group lesson or testimony that touches deep inside. When that happens to one of us, we feel the blessing. When that happens to a newcomer, we are blessed beyond belief and we thank God for this miracle. We see miracles happen every Tuesday night. You're invited to come see them, too.

Jean Johnson, Assimilation Coach

Each month, one member of the Finance Committee volunteers to submit a newsletter article. This month for a Finance Committee article, I thought it might be fun to have a question/answer format. Pastor David and our Finance Chair, Jeff Luther, allowed me to interview them and give us their insights concerning finances. The following is our question/answer session:

Q: What is the function of the finance committee?

A: Pastor David - The function of the finance committee is to audit the books first and foremost. The second is to help set and project a budget. The third is to fundraise the budget of the church. Audit is the big one. We need to make sure that all our accounts, especially the general fund in particular, are being spent well and wisely. All program ministries are held accountable to their spending. The finance committee also assists the trustees in auditing and managing the memorial gifts that are given. The trustees have control over those things. That's what the finance committee does.

Jeff - According to the Book of Discipline, "The committee on finance shall give stewardship of financial resources as their priority throughout the year."

Here at EFUMC the finance committee strives to fulfill that charge in several ways. The makeup of the finance committee consists of the senior pastor, church administrator, chairpersons of the major work areas and other "at large" members. Perhaps our biggest duty is developing a realistic annual budget which is a real team effort. This process starts early in the fall of each year and is based on requests from the various work areas as well as our staff. Church administrator Lynn Dieckow provides us with valuable insights on all aspects of EFUMC finances and is especially helpful in the development of the budget. We also monitor income vs expenses during the year and address the church council for approval if mid-year budget adjustments are needed.

Q: What would be your goal for us financially, as our preacher/finance chair?

A: Pastor David - My goal for us financially, in a perfect world, the church is able to pay 100% apportionments which is about 10% of the budget. We should be able to pay everyone generously. We should have 10% left over at the end of the year in the black. You budget in such a way that you have a 10% surplus and that can go for capital improvements. That may look like completing a big project in the sanctuary or fixing a rundown playground. You don't have to run a million extra campaigns each year. I would love it if we were a church who funded the general fund first as opposed to identified accounts. The general fund is poor if all accounts are identified.

Jeff - As for goals, please know that I am acutely aware of the impact Covid-19 is having all around us and also at EFUMC. That said, as we enter the last quarter of 2020 I want all of us to reflect on how we can support the ministries of our church and stretch a bit if possible. The finance committee will soon be presenting the 2021 budget to the church council for approval. It would be great if next year's pledges were sufficient to fund 100% of the budget.

I appreciate hearing from these two experts on the subject of church finances and ask you to continue to support EFUMC as we move forward.

Laura Wildzunas, Lay Leader
Finance Committee Member

October STARS

Well, STARS Nation, it appears that our immediate area is making some progress in the battle with COVID-19. We've not seen the increase in positive cases that some experts expected following the Labor Day holiday. Please hope and pray that we continue to see decreasing numbers in terms of persons testing positive, hospitalizations, and deaths.

In-person worship is continuing and we encourage you to join in when you feel comfortable doing so. Masks and social distancing practices are still required for contemporary and traditional worship to keep everyone as safe as possible.

If you're still concerned about exposing yourself to crowds, you may watch either contemporary or traditional worship on the EFUMC Facebook page. Our pastors, staff, and musicians are putting a lot of effort into those services and their efforts are apparent whether you attend in worship in person or participate via technology.

We're looking to the day when we can gather again for our monthly luncheon meetings, but we're uncertain as to when that will be possible. You've probably heard this in many areas of life these days, but you'll just have to be patient until we can determine that it's safe to resume our typical operation.

While you're waiting for us to resume, please continue to keep in touch with other members of STARS. Reach out to others and let them know that you care about them. Continue to use the social media and PEW NEWS to keep up to date on things involving the church. And, keep praying for the pastors, staff, and extended church family.

In the meantime, there's a real need to extend additional Christian care to various members of our congregation. A new program – the WE CARE ministry – is designed to meet those needs. If you have a heart for serving our Christian community, please consider being a part of our WE CARE ministry. Contact Pastor David - pastor@efumc.com, Pastor Matt - youth@efumc.com, or Allen Dunham - allen.dunham@centurytel.net, to volunteer your services. Keep your spirits up; keep the faith; be safe.

-John Fergus, STARS Chair

Our "Continuing Prayer List" is listed below. Please include these folks in your daily prayers. If you know of someone who should be included on this list, please feel free to email (secretary@efumc.com) or call me (334-347-3467) and I will be happy to honor your request. If you see someone on this list who needs to be removed, we would appreciate that information as well. Please pray earnestly for these and others you have upon your hearts.
